Admission

We reserve the right to refuse admission or ask a ticket holder to leave for behaviour likely to cause damage, injury or nuisance, annoyance, or failure to comply with the reasonable requests of the management. Latecomers will be admitted at the first suitable break at the steward's discretion.

Children under 18 months do not require a ticket unless stipulated for a specific event. They may sit on an adult ticket holder's lap for selected performances. For everyone's comfort and enjoyment, if there is a disturbance, we might ask you to take your child or children out of the performance space.

An adult ticket holder must accompany children aged 16 and under. Some events have specific age restrictions and override the former age limit. Please remember all children under 16 remain the responsibility of their parents, carers or supervisors whilst at the venue, so we respectfully ask that you keep an eye on them.

School groups attending public concerts must have a minimum ratio of one adult to ten children (under 16s) with at least two adults accompanying any group of children even if the group number is below ten.

All persons must follow the instructions of any officials of the venue. Any persons in breach of this clause may be removed from the premises. In addition, anyone found to be causing damage to the venue, the venue infrastructure, causing harm to any other person at the venue, being disrespectful to staff, behaving in an illegal, anti-social or aggressive manner, appearing to be under the influence of alcohol and drugs or in breach of these conditions will be ejected and may be reported to the police.

The management reserve the right to search all persons and personal property via bag searches. They will refuse admission to or eject any person who refuses to be searched from the venue.

Alcohol will be on sale in the venue; however, if you look under 25, please do not be offended if you are asked for proof of age. Staff will also operate around the venue to prevent anybody under 18 from attempting to consume alcohol.

Persons attending the venue are responsible for their valuables. Wiltshire Music Centre will not be liable for any loss or damage to personal property brought to the venue.

The Performance

The unauthorised use of recording and imaging equipment is strictly prohibited. Mobile phones must be silenced before entering performance areas. If you experience problems during a performance, please get in touch with a steward so that we can do our best to resolve the issue at the time.

Any complaints regarding the performance or any aspect of your visit must be made within seven days of the event.

Photography and video recording

Wiltshire Music Centre (or its approved agents) may produce film, photography or sound recordings which may include audience members. We will indicate this is taking place with signage and, if possible, we will let ticket holders know before the event. Please advise anyone in our front of house team of stewards if you don't want to be photographed or filmed. Please note that we do not allow photographs, video or audio recordings to be taken during performances, unless otherwise stated. Customers found to be ignoring the policy may be asked to delete footage they have taken and may be asked to leave the auditorium by the management.

Changes to the performance or programme

The management reserves the right to change the programme due to unforeseen circumstances. All ticket holders will be notified of any changes, if practicably possible.

We can accept no responsibility for any loss due to cancellations or changes to events. If a show you have booked tickets for is cancelled, you will be entitled to a full refund of the face value of the ticket, or we can credit your Wiltshire Music Centre account with the face value of the ticket. The credit on your account will then last for 12 months. Booking fees are non-refundable.

The management reserves the right to change the start and finish times of any performance.

In the event of a cancellation, ticket holders will be notified in advance, where practicably possible.

Artists, programme, and performance details are correct at the time of sale or print publication, but changes may be unavoidable.
